Re: United States v. Shlomo Patchiav
Crim. Dkt. No.: 1:23-cr-00099-(DLI)

Dear Judge Irizarry:

I am the attorney for Mr. Shlomo Patchiav, the Defendant in the above-referenced case. The Defendant respectfully writes to request a modification of his release condition.

My client and his wife want to attend a religious couples retreat from November 28, 2025 to November 30, 2025 at the Ocean Place Resort & Spa which is located at 1 Ocean Blvd., Long Beach, NJ 07740. The event will be hosted by EMET Outreach, a religious Jewish organization based in Brooklyn. Mr. Patchiav and his wife want to attend this retreat for the purpose of religious couples counseling.

It is respectfully requested that the current bail conditions be modified to allow Mr. Patchiav to travel outside of New York City from November 28, 2025 to November 30, 2025. Mr. Patchiav will continue to have his travel supervised by the Electronic Monitoring Unit (EMU) of Pre-Trial Services via GPS monitoring.

In light of my client's full compliance and cooperation with the restrictions placed upon his liberty for the last two (2) years, I am most respectfully making this modification request. I have discussed the proposed modification set forth above with Pre-Trial Services and the Government. Both parties consent. Accordingly, I respectfully request that the Court grant the proposed modification.

Finally, I wish the Honorable Court, the U.S. Attorneys and Pre-Trial Services a Healthy and Happy Thanksgiving.

Respectfully,

Michael L. Soshnick
